PART II TEACHING PLAN

Introduction

ATTENTION: Today, we are going to have a formal inspection.

MOTIVATION: You are ready to perform some "drill squadron" duties, which includes formal inspection.

OVERVIEW: The inspection is to determine if the uniforms and movements meet the established military standards.

TRANSITION: FALL IN!

Body

(NOTE: The instructor might select an exceptionally outstanding cadet to perform as cadet commander for the "drill squadron.")

The cadet commander will have the unit prepare for inspection as previously instructed and practiced. The cadet commander aided by the instructor will conduct the inspection.

Conclusion

SUMMARY: During this period, we used a cadet commander to inspect the squadron and identified the discrepancies.

REMOTIVATION: The commander will give praise where praise is due and constructive criticism where required.

CLOSURE: FALL OUT!
